Invitation to a planetary meditation

The International 1MIN4PEACE organisation invites you to join a mega planetary meditation online.

Let's all unite and meditate together to send peace and love to humanity.

In a common spirit of fraternity the international 1min4peace.org organisation invites people of all cultures and all beliefs to take part together in a global Meditation online to send love to all life on the planet. The Meditation will be led in English* by Uriel Nawej international meditation teacher for over 30 years.

This does not require any belief system, just love. The more numerous we are, the more positive impact it will have in pulling our humanity towards peace, so please feel free to invite anyone you know to join in.

Our purpose is to increase harmony, unity, and peace on earth. Now is a perfect time.

When?
